Counseling Report

Counseling session conducted for the students of B.Com CA on 24/05/2021 with the objective of coping with stress and anxiety during covid-19 pandemic.

Student mental health in higher education has been an increasing concern. This session aims to conduct a timely assessment of the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the mental health of college students. Due to the long-lasting pandemic situation and measures such as lockdown and stay-at-home orders, the COVID-19 pandemic brings negative impacts on higher education.

During this meeting students are encouraged to seek support with the counselor if they face any kind of stress, anxiety etc.. Also explained to them about the importance of exercise, food, routine activities etc to cope up with this crisis.

ORIENTATION CLASS FOR FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

As soon as new students arrive at the institution and before normal classes begin, student induction programmes begin interacting with them. As part of the induction process, the incumbents learn about the institutional regulations, procedures, practices, culture, and values, and their mentor groups are formed.

One day orientation programme, "A PRELUDE TO YOUR COLLEGE LIFE" for first year students of the academic year 2021-22 was conducted as a part of counseling and orientation on 9/10/21. MR.Girish, Assistant professor, Govt.Arts College TVM engaged online class. He discussed about job opportunities, current affairs, attending interviews, social values, food habit for children and also answered the queries of the participants. The class was very informative and interesting to students.
